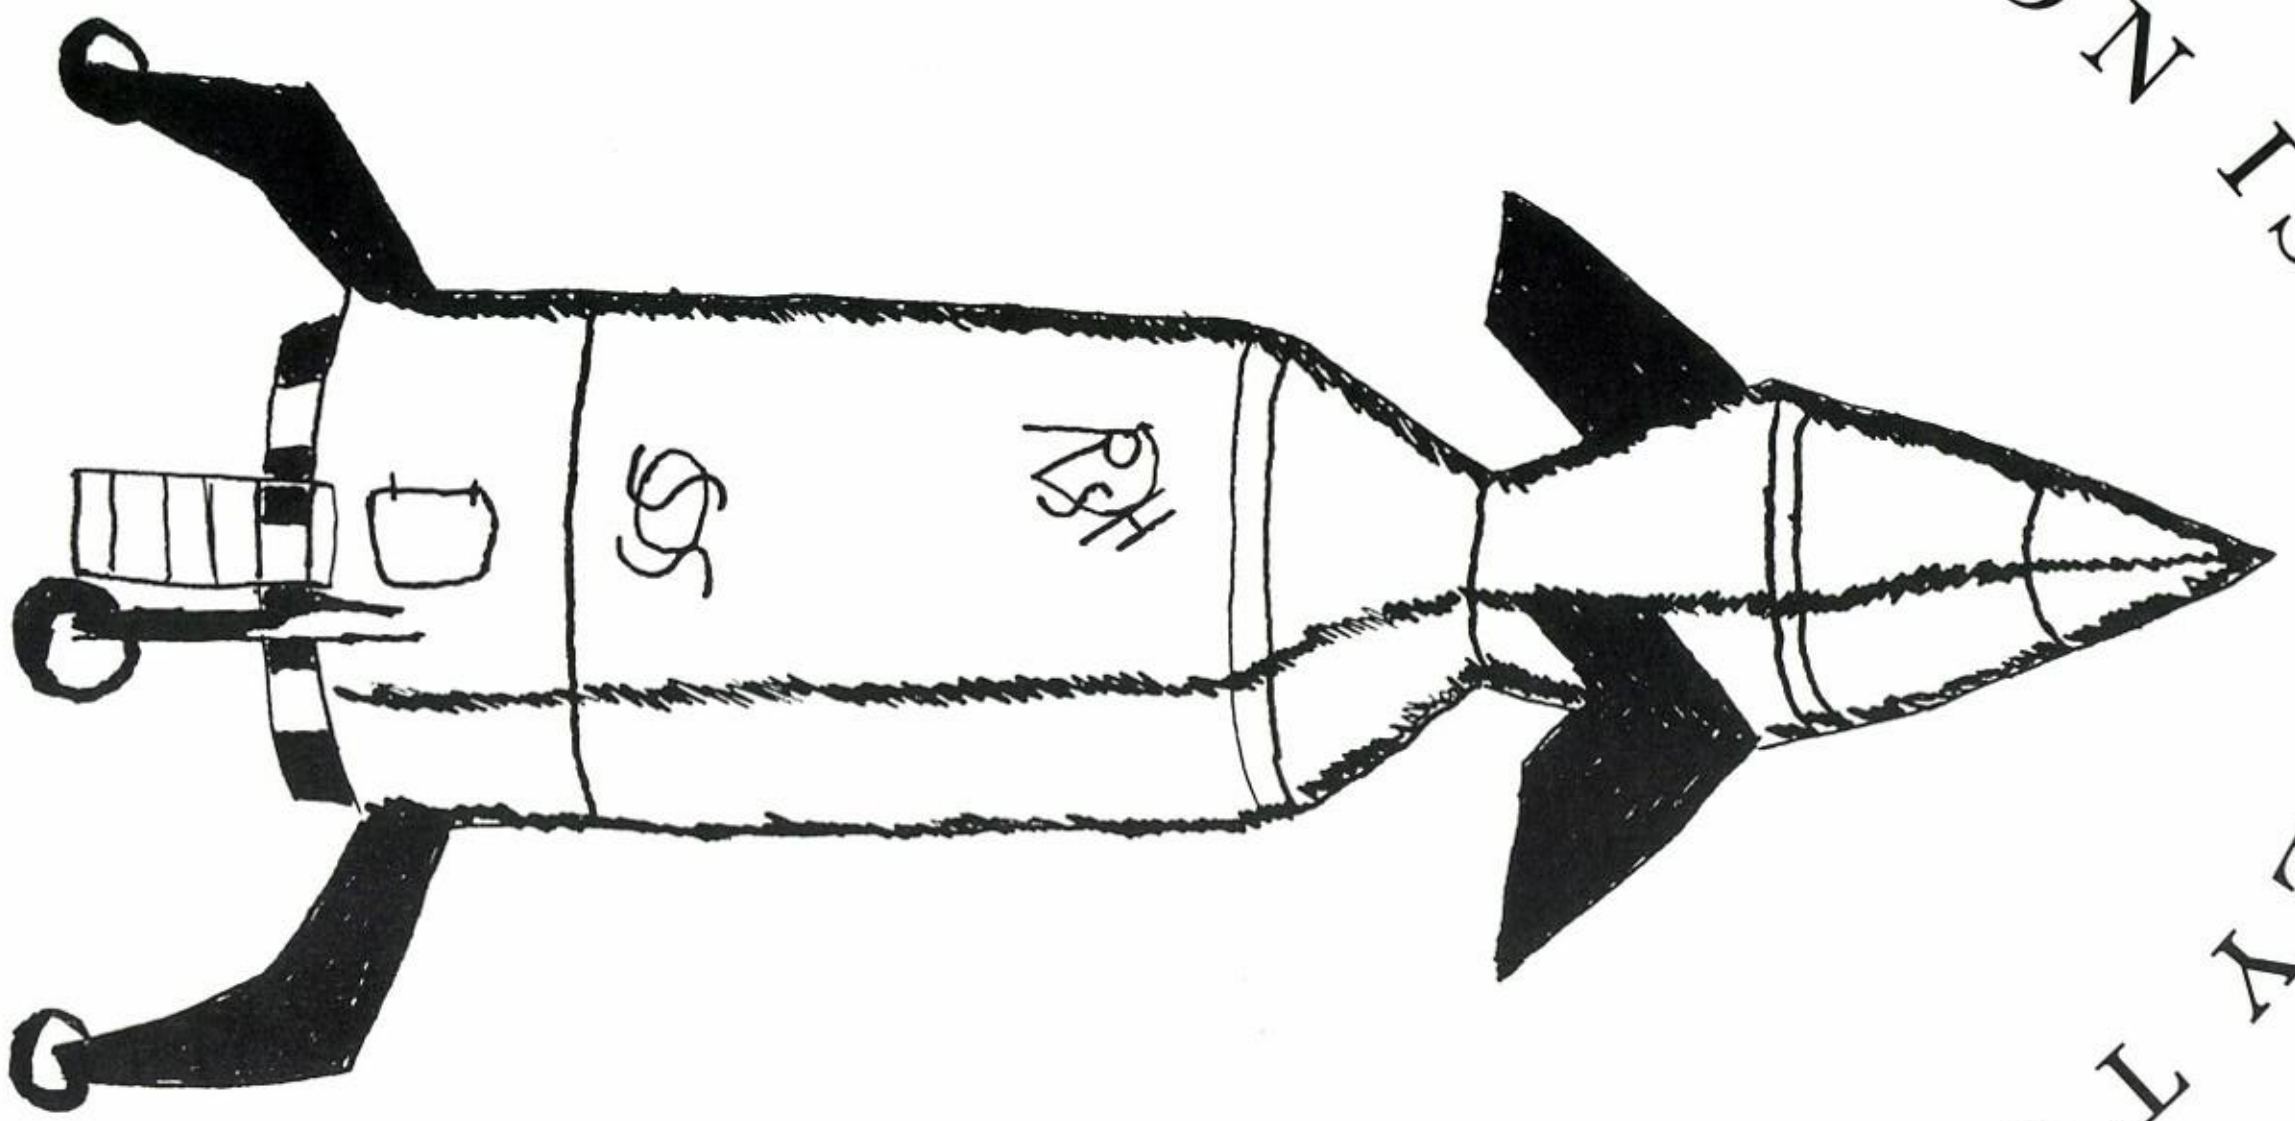
EDUCATION IS THE KEY TO SUCCESS



FOREWORD

The tide rises, the tide falls,
The twilight darkens, the curlew
calls;
Along the sea sands damp and brown
The traveler hastens toward the town,
And the tide rises, the tide falls.

The morning breaks; the steeds in their stalls
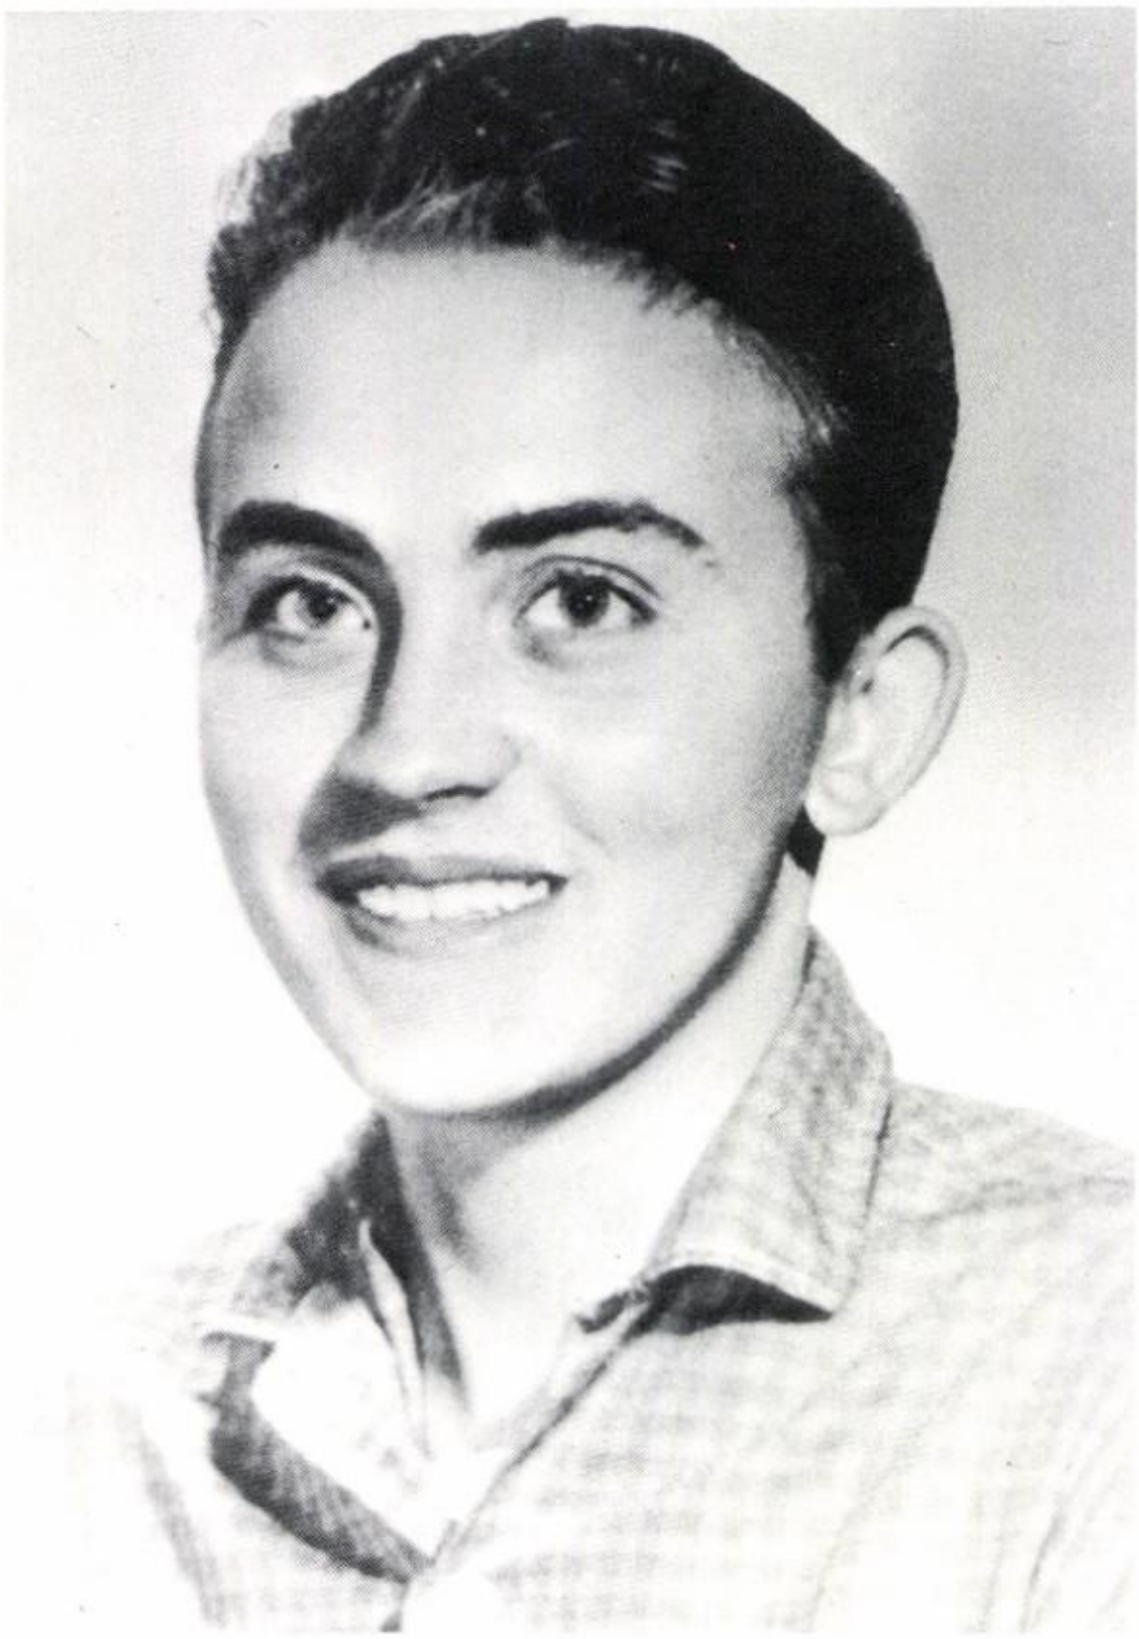
Stamp and neigh as the hostler
calls;
The day returns, but nevermore
Returns the traveler to the shore,
And the tide rises, the tide falls.

DEDICATION



We, the Seniors of Dixfield Regional High School dedicate the 1963 edition of Dixie Blueprints to our classmate, Wayne Drown, who has departed from our midst to enter the portals of his eternal home. In his memory, we pay respect to Wayne and shall always remember his contribution to our social standing.

DIXFIELD HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1953

The pages of time are never turned in reverse. The Class of 1953 has moved forward in the last decade and time has brought many changes. To briefly review their identity and activities, here are some of the highlights in their progress:

The top honor parts were given to Diane Mendes, Valedictorian, and Jeannine White, Salutatorian.

From the class we have two teachers, one nurse, one pursuing a military career, thirteen homemakers, sixty-six children, two are single, and the rest have become worthy citizens of Dixfield and surrounding towns.

CLASS OF 1953, CONGRATULATIONS!

SALUTATORIAN
Jeannie White
